Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The NBI Equity Income Private Portfolio's investment objective is to maximize the potential for long-term capital growth and to generate high dividend income. The Fund invests directly, or through investments in securities of other mutual funds, in a portfolio primarily composed of equity securities of Canadian companies that pay dividends.

The portfolio manager follows an investment process that is primarily based on bottom-up fundamental research, with a focus on capital growth. The Portfolio manager chooses quality companies that pay high income, while diversifying across industries and regions to reduce volatility. It is expected that investments in foreign securities will not exceed approximately 30% of the Fund's assets.

Risks

The global investment risk of the Fund remains as described in the simplified prospectus or any amendments thereto and Fund Facts.

Results of Operations

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2023, the NBI Equity Income Private Portfolio's Advisor Series units returned 7.90% compared to 11.75% for the Fund's benchmark, the S&P/TSX Composite Index (CAD). Unlike the benchmark, the Fund's performance is calculated after fees and expenses. Please see the Past Performance section for the returns of all of the Fund's series, which may vary mainly because of fees and expenses.

Certain series of the Fund, as applicable, may make distributions at a rate determined by the manager. This rate may change from time to time. If the aggregate amount of distributions in such series exceeds the portion of net income and net realized capital gains allocated to such series, the excess will constitute a return of capital. The manager does not believe that the return of capital distributions made by such series of the Fund have a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objective.

The Fund's net asset value rose by 6.34% over the period, from $152.31 million as at December 31, 2022 to $161.97 million as at December 31, 2023.

Canadian equities gained ground during 2023 despite sluggish GDP growth, a volatile international environment, and tough central bank monetary policy firmly focused on driving down inflation. Energy stocks were pressured amidst falling oil prices throughout much of 2023, as were producers of many commodities. The gold sector performed well as the price of gold closed the year near an all-time high.

The Bank of Canada announced in its last meeting of 2023 that it was maintaining its target for the overnight rate at 5% and continuing its quantitative tightening actions despite its recognition that the global economy is slowing, and inflation is easing. This due to the fact that the Consumer Price Index, which rose by 3.1% on a year-over-year basis in both November and October, continues to run above its target levels.

Canada is heavily reliant on trade with the United States, so U.S. monetary policy and the currency exchange were key drivers. Fixed income investors began pushing down the Treasury yield curve in anticipation of "pivot" to a more dovish monetary policy stance which was telegraphed by Jerome Powell, Chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board near yearend. This thus relieved pressure on the Bank of Canada going forward.

Commitments made by U.S. president Joe Biden and Chinese President Xi Jinping during a meeting in San Francisco in December to restore full implementation of the U.S.-China air transportation agreement and to encourage expanded educational, cultural, sports, and business exchanges raised hopes of easing international tensions as the year drew to a close.

The NBI Equity Income Private Portfolio, over the year, underperformed its benchmark. Value added came mainly from security selection. Top individual contributors to relative performance during the year were Microsoft, Constellation Software and Parkland. On the other hand, top detractors were Enbridge and Tourmaline Oil.

Recent Developments

The portfolio manager added resources back to the portfolio starting end of June. This represented over 20% of the portfolio. Due to market timing, there was a negative contribution, however going forward this will meaningfully reduce portfolio construction risk.

The Fund is underweight Consumer Discretionary and owns double weight in Consumer Staples because there are not many quality growth higher dividend discretionary names.

The Fund is overweight Communication Services as the sector offers many defensive high dividend names.

The portfolio manager is optimistic on the outlook for equity markets in 2024. He selectively added back to the resource sectors due to secular developments in supply demand dynamics. The possibility of a multi-year runway for certain companies to consistently meet his quality growth criteria increased due to a variety of factors. Foremost, is an improved focus on capital discipline and shareholder returns, which has historically been absent in this space. Secondly, growing resource nationalism, exacerbated by the Ukraine/Russia debacle and most recently in Panama/Chile, is impeding supply. Lastly, the energy transition will be metal intensive further increasing demand, which is counter-intuitive in a carbon-free world. As his quality growth universe evolves, it is his responsibility to research and re-examine new ideas. He began building positions in the resource sectors in the second quarter of 2023 and continued to add more names as previously communicated.

On May 1, 2023, the Fund's independent review committee (the "IRC") was increased to four members when Stéphanie Raymond-Bougie was appointed as IRC member.

The administration fees are equal to a specified percentage of the net asset value of each series of the Fund, calculated and paid in the same manner as the Fund's management fees. The variable operating expenses payable by the Manager include, but are not limited to: transfer agency and recordkeeping costs; custodial costs; accounting and valuation fees; audit fees and legal fees; costs of preparing and distributing financial reports, simplified prospectuses, annual information forms, Fund Facts, continuous disclosure material and other securityholder communications; and costs of trustee services relating to registered tax plans, as applicable.

In addition to administration fees, the Fund shall also pay certain Fund costs, namely: taxes (including, but not limited to, GST/HST and income taxes); costs of compliance with any changes to existing governmental or regulatory requirements introduced after August 1, 2013; costs of compliance with any new governmental or regulatory requirements, including any new fees introduced after August 1, 2013; interest and borrowing costs; costs related to external services that were not commonly charged in the Canadian mutual fund industry as at August 1, 2013; Independent Review Committee costs, including compensation paid to IRC members, travel expenses, insurance premiums and costs associated with their continuing education; and variable operating expenses incurred outside of the normal course of business of the Fund.

The Manager has implemented policies and procedures to make sure that the conditions applicable to each of the above transactions are met. The applicable standing instructions require that these transactions be carried out in accordance with NBII policies, which specify, in particular, that investment decisions pertaining to these related party transactions must be made free from any influence by an entity related to NBII and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to NBII. Furthermore, the investment decisions must represent the business judgment of the securities advisor, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interest of the Fund and must achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

Registered Plan Trust Services

NBT receives a fixed amount per registered account for services provided as trustee for registered plans.

Administrative and Operating Services

The provision of certain services was delegated by the Fund Manager, NBII, to National Bank Trust Inc. ("NBT"), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Bank. These include accounting, reporting and portfolio valuation services. The fees incurred for these services are paid to NBT by the Fund manager.

Management Fees

The Fund pays annual management fees to the Fund manager for its management services. The fees are calculated based on a percentage of the Fund's daily net asset value before applicable taxes and are paid on a monthly basis. Under the Distribution heading, expenses include the broker's compensation consisting of the maximum annual trailer fees and sales commissions paid to brokers. Under the Other heading, the fees relate mainly to investment management, investment advisory services, general administration and profit. The breakdown of major services provided in consideration of the management fees, expressed as an approximate percentage of the management fees is as follows:

Management fees are negotiated with and paid directly by investors and are in addition to the fixed-rate administration fee. NBII does not pay any commissions or service fees to dealers who sell O Series units. There are no sales charges payable by investors who purchase O Series units.

Past Performance

The performance of each series of the Fund is presented below and calculated as at December 31 of each year. It assumes that all distributions made in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities and does not take into account sales, redemption charges, distributions, or optional charges that would have reduced returns. Past performance of a series of a Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

The bar charts indicate the performance for each the Fund's series in existence greater than one year during the years shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from year to year. ⁽⁴⁾ This information is derived from the Fund's Annual Audited Financial Statements. The net assets per unit presented in the financial statements might differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. The differences are explained in the notes to the financial statements.
