Individual plan

Single Beneficiary

Main features of the plan:

- One beneficiary per plan
- Anyone can be the beneficiary (the parties do not need to be blood relatives).
- The beneficiary can be any age.
- The beneficiary must meet the following criteria:
  - Be a Canadian resident (unless it is a transfer)
  - Have a valid SIN
- Contribution limits are not based on the age of the beneficiary.
- The Canada Learning Bond (CLB) can only be used by the beneficiary for whom payments were made in the RESP.
- Contributions must be stopped when the beneficiary turns 31 OR 31 years after the plan was entered into.
- Lifetime contribution limit: $50,000

Family plan

One beneficiary or more

Main features of the plan:

- The subscriber and the beneficiaries must be related by blood (e.g., children, grandchildren, siblings) or by adoption.
- The beneficiaries must meet the following criteria:
  - Be under age 21 when they are added to the plan (unless it is a transfer)
  - Be Canadian residents
  - Have a valid SIN

- Lifetime contribution limit per beneficiary: $50,000

Contributions must stop once the beneficiaries have reached age 31 or 31 years after the plan was established.

- The plan must be terminated by December 31 of the 35th year after its establishment.
- A Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG), CLB, Quebec Education Savings Incentive (QESI) (increased amount) and additional grants from the Alberta Centennial Education Savings plan can be paid only if the beneficiaries are siblings.
- The additional grant can only be received in an Individual or family/sibling RESP
- CESGs paid into the plan can be used for an RESP-eligible beneficiary, up to $7,200 per beneficiary.
- The QESI paid into the plan can be used by an RESP-eligible beneficiary, up to a maximum of $3,600 per beneficiary.
- If the child does not pursue post-secondary education, CLBs are not transferable to another child and must be repaid to the government.
- The revenue and grants can be shared with the beneficiaries of the plan

4. Designation of the Beneficiary

Make sure that the beneficiary's name and SIN are exactly the same as on the SIN card and that the requirements are met for each beneficiary.

Custodial parent, legal guardian or public primary caregiver

If the subscriber is not the beneficiary's custodial parent, then we require the name and address of the custodial parent, legal guardian or public primary caregiver (child assistance services, agencies, institutions and organizations that look after the child's needs).

5. Source of funds

Do not forget to attach to the account opening form the transfer form SDE0100-A and to add the TP-1029 if the client lives in Quebec. For a copy of the transfer forms, go to our website at www.nbcadvisor.com.

8. Operations-Grant Allocation

To apply for the various government grants, complete the government forms separately. An application must be completed for each RESP beneficiary to make sure that the beneficiary receives the available grants under the Canada Education Savings Act (CESA) or a provincial program administered under the CESA. The forms are available at www.nbcadvisor.com. It is possible to apply for one or more grants subject to eligibility.

No form is required for the Quebec Education Savings Incentive (QESI). We will send an application for each beneficiary. One of the following grants can be requested as part of a National Bank Securities inc. RESP:

▶ Basic Canada Education Savings Grant (Basic CESA)

The basic CESA is a grant offered by the federal government that corresponds to 20% of the contributions made to a RESP for a beneficiary residing in Canada under the age of 18, up to an annual limit of $500.

▶ Additional Canada Education Savings Grant (Additional CESA)

The additional CESA is an extra grant offered by the federal government that corresponds to 10% or 20% of the first $500 in annual contributions to a RESP for an eligible beneficiary whose primary caregiver's net household income is within the range set by the CRA every year. The public primary caregiver must receive payments under the Children's Special Allowances Act.

▶ Canada Learning Bond (CLB)

The CLB is an additional grant offered by the federal government to beneficiaries residing in Canada born after 2003 whose primary caregiver has the right to the National Child Benefit Supplement. The initial CLB is $500. The subsequent CLB is $100 for every year of eligibility until the child reaches the age of 15. The public primary caregiver must receive payments under the Children's Special Allowances Act for at least one month during the benefit year.

▶ Québec Education Savings Incentive (QESI)

The QESI is a refundable tax credit paid by Revenu Québec into the RESP on behalf of a beneficiary residing in Quebec who meets the eligibility criteria. The basic QESI is 10% of the net contributions made during the year up to an annual maximum of $250 and a cumulative lifetime amount of $3,600. The increased QESI is offered to beneficiaries that meet certain requirements set by the Quebec government.

▶ Alberta Centennial Education Savings Grant (ACES)

ACES is a grant given by the Government of Alberta for the children of parents residing in Alberta who meet the following eligibility criteria. The initial ACES grant is $500 and the subsequent grants may be payable when the child has reached ages 8, 11 or 14.

⇒ Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings (SAGES)

The Government of Saskatchewan will provide a grant of 10% on contributions made since January 1, 2013, to a Registered Education Savings Plan. The maximum grant is $250 per child per year. To be eligible for the grant, the child must be a resident of Saskatchewan when the contribution is made.

⇒ British Columbia Training and Education Savings Grant (BCTESG)

Families in British Columbia are encouraged to start planning and saving early for their children's post-secondary education or training programs. To help, the B.C. Government will contribute $1,200 to eligible children through the B.C. Training and Education Savings Grant (BCTESG).

To be eligible for the $1,200 BCTESG:

- Parent and child must be residents of B.C.
- Child must have been born in 2006 or later.
- Child must be named as a beneficiary of a RESP

Grant allocation: it is possible to invest in funds that are different from those of the contribution, or simply tick the box "Unless otherwise specified, the grant will be invested in the same allocation as the contribution."
