Purchase price matters

Allocating capital

in any market environment to what we believe are attractive risk/reward opportunities

Belief in the promise of alternatives

Seeking to generate excess return per unit of risk across risk/reward spectrum

Alignment

Committing side by side

Uniquely positioned origination platform

Apollo built an ecosystem of origination platforms focused on asset-backed and specialty lending. These businesses span aviation, equipment and trade finance, warehouse facilities, and more. Today there are over 4,000 professionals working across 16 platform businesses, which originate tens of billions in assets every year for Apollo clients and third parties.

Apollo believes this direct origination strategy helps to deliver excess risk-adjusted returns at scale on a recurring basis.
